

DARROWEVERETT

IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE ADDITION OF TWO NEW ATTORNEYS:

REBECCA COX

Ms. Cox concentrates her practice in the areas of commercial real estate, financing, and general business law. She has experience in all aspects of these practice areas, including real estate acquisitions and sales, commercial leasing, mergers and acquisitions, commercial lending, franchise law, condominium law, and entity formation. In connection with these practice areas, Ms. Cox has represented regional real estate developers, franchisee business owners along the East Coast, landlords, and private lenders.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Cox was an associate at a highly regarded Providence based law firm specializing in all aspects of transactional law. Among her areas of expertise are acquisitions and dispositions of commercial real estate, and mortgage and asset based lending. She also drafted and negotiated leases and other various types of commercial contracts.

MICHAEL HACKETT

Mr. Hackett is a transactional attorney concentrating in the area of corporate and general business law. His expertise extends to a variety of business law matters including: formation of business entities; development of business planning and growth strategies; documenting and closing financing and equity deals; negotiating and drafting commercial contracts; conducting business mergers and acquisitions; and handling corporate governance matters.

Mr. Hackett has worked on numerous projects for highly regarded national restaurant chains, retailers, advertisers, distributors and hotel developers; he has represented many companies on corporate, transactional, e-commerce and data security matters.

Prior to joining DarrowEverett LLP, Mr. Hackett practiced at the Boston office of Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott LLC in its Business Division and counseled clients in a wide variety of industries including manufacturing, retail, high technology, education and hospitality.
